New York, NY 10004

SIPC v. BLMIS, Adv. Pro. Nos. 10-4488, 10-4350, 10-5110

Dear Judge Bernstein:

We represent the South Ferry, South Ferry 2, and Mesora defendants in the matter referenced above. Our clients are preparing to file a joint summary judgment motion and related memorandum.

We respectfully request permission for these defendants to file an overlength brief. This moving brief would exceed the 40-page limit specified in your chamber rules by no more than 10 pages. The increase to 50 pages is necessary to adequately address the legal arguments and distinct facts raised by three different defendants who are filing a joint dispositive motion.

Counsel for the Trustee consents to this request, provided that the Trustee is allotted the same number of pages. The defendants have no objection to the Trustee filing up to a 50-page combined motion for summary judgment.

The Trustee also requests that the July 17, 2017 filing deadline for the summary judgment motions be extended to July 21, 2017. The defendants have no objection to the Trustee's request for additional time and will file their own motions based on the revised schedule.

Granted
SMB
7/11/17

Unless the court otherwise directs, the parties will proceed as outlined above with respect to the motions for summary judgment.

Respectfully,

/s/ Richard A. Kirby
